

58th Anniversary
1956-2014
New England Fire Apparatus Maintenance Association

Listed below are training sessions available for June EXPO and Conference in Springfield and West Springfield at the Eastern States Exposition grounds located at Fire Station 4.

Thursday, June 18, 2014

Pump Testing
What to Know & Why it Needs to be Done
Conducted by Mr. Al Burnham of FEMCO
8:00 am – until completed

Friday, June 19, 2014 – am session

Aerial Testing
What to Know & Why it Needs to be Done
Conducted by Mr. Jim Johanneson of UL
8:00 am – 11:30 am

Friday, June 19, 2014 – pm session

Cummins Overview
Emissions & Engine Applications
Conducted by Mr. Brian Beaulieu of Cummins Northeast
12:30 pm – until completed

Sponsored by FEMCO and Minuteman Fire Rescue Apparatus.

Registration fee for the two-day program is $125.00 (members) or $150.00 (non-members). The deadline for registration is June 1, 2014. Each paid member can bring their Chief or apparatus supervisor at no additional cost. Please include their info for headcount. Also, on Saturday, June 18, 2014, EVT Certification testing will be available. The test will be conducted at Fire Station 4 on the Eastern States Exposition grounds. Interested individuals should contact EVT directly to request a registration form at 847.426.4075 or via their website at www.evtcc.org/register.htm. Please note there is a 21-day advance registration required.

Name:	Department:
Address:
Registration Fee:
_____ $125 (member) _____ $150 (non-member)
Please make check payable to: NEFAMA . Remit payment to David Motta, 23 Bourne Road, Swansea, MA 02777. Any questions, please contact: Paul Lamoureux @508.326.3179; Dave Motta @508.326.8773; Jack Morris @978.423.1877. Thank you!

